have an ability to tell stories. Whether they are arguing a murder case or a complex financial securities case, they can capably explain a chain of events to judges and juries so that they understand them. The best lawyers are also able to construct narratives that have an emotional impact on their intended audiences.

Some might argue that legal storytelling has pretty much always been around — in that identifying pertinent facts, figuring out what the pertinent rule is, and then applying that rule or distinguishing it to arrive at a conclusion is really a matter of telling the story of a particular matter. Identifying relevant characters and pertinent elements of the plot and then reaching an ending is really traversing the arc of a story.

What Is Legal Storytelling?

"Storytelling for Lawyers is a well-done exploration of legal storytelling and would be well placed in any lawyer's toolbox of
