There are some things in this world that should make a Christian angry. There is so much injustice, robbing of widows by schemes, the abuse of children, and violence against the defenseless. Paul actually commands us to be angry, believe it or not, by saying, "Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger" (Eph 4:26). This is an imperative command Paul gives to be angry...but it is conditional.
